

How to create a Pipeline on SSIS

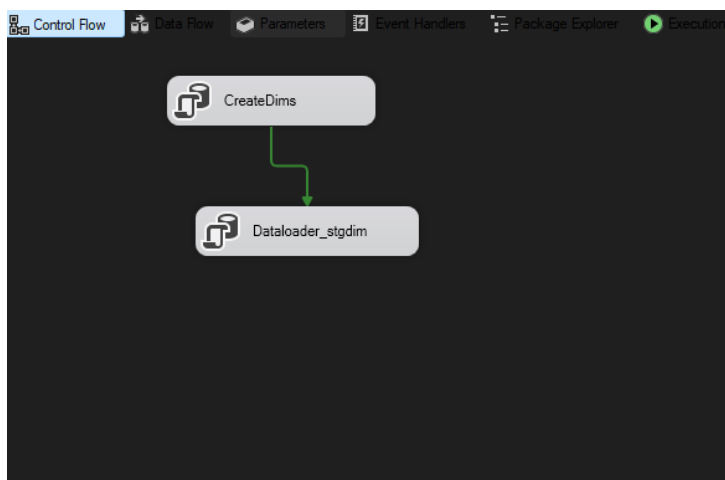

1. Create connections with connection managers

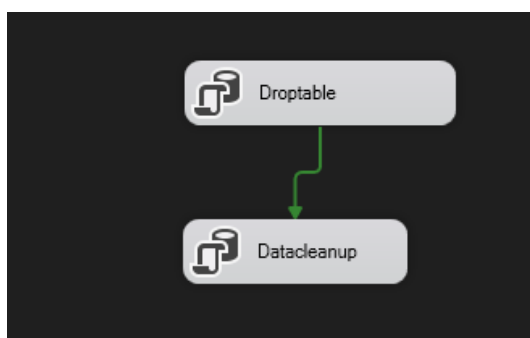

2. Do data ingestion from source to destination

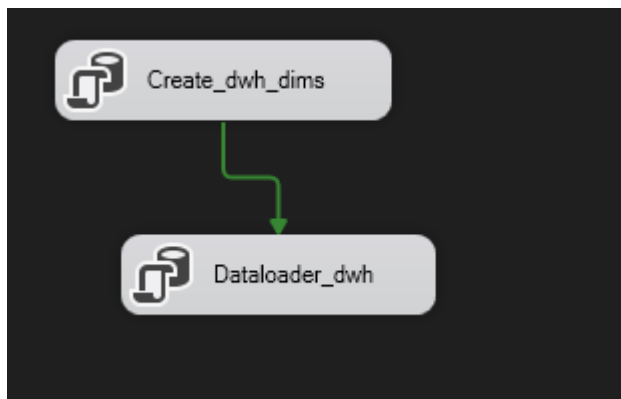

3. Creating stg table and insert data

4. Data clean up

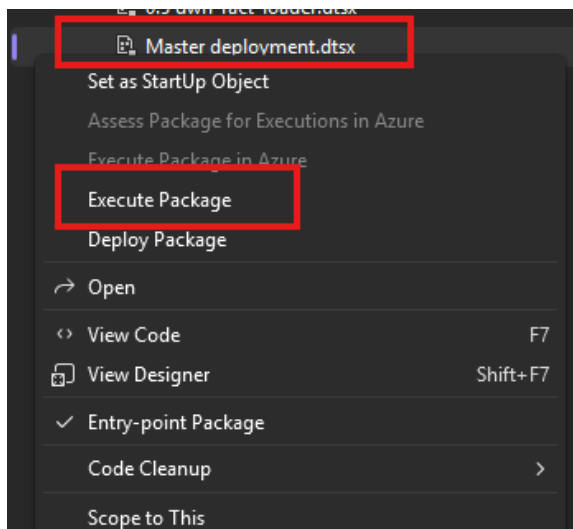

5. Create dwh tables and insert data from a clean table

6. Create a master package to run all the packages

7. Right click your Master deployment package the execute package

8. Just make sure that all the processes ran successful

